Pittsburgh, PA — January 13, 2025 Silver Eye is delighted to announce the artists of Fellowship 25. This year we had more than 200 applicants from around the world reflecting innovative and thoughtful approaches to contemporary photography. We sincerely thank this year's jurors, Nelson Chan and Dionne Lee, and everyone who submitted their work.

The Fellowship 25 International Award and Honorable Mentions recognize rising talents or established photographers from anywhere in the world. The Fellowship 25 International Award recipient is Ramona Jingru Wang with Alana Perino and Brett Davis awarded Honorable Mentions. The Fellowship 25 Keystone Award and Honorable Mentions recognize outstanding artists living or making work within the state of Pennsylvania. Sobia Ahmad is the recipient of the Fellowship 25 Keystone Award, and Paolo Morales and Clare Sheedy were awarded Honorable Mentions.

"It was fun and difficult to jury the 2025 Silver Eye Fellowship. We reviewed an incredible amount of work that showed great depth for the medium of photography and an endless inquiry for the world that we inhabit. This was such a privilege and so inspiring to be a part of. Congrats to the winners and honorable mentions."

Nelson Chan and Dionne Lee

Fellowship 25 is supported directly by Arts Equity and Education Fund and The Leonian Foundation.
